There is much in the doctrines of Mor monism that is abhorrent to the noblest and most sacred feelings of the more intelligent, especially of the young ludies connected with the Mormon families, revolting to their native sentiment of refinement and to the beautiful and tender ideals of home and of domestic life.

In the ideal of no the womanbood, when reflecting on what God would have her be and her divinely inspired affections and sympathies have malfied her to become, it is womanhood, radient with the diadem of many virtues and glowing with the enkindled divinity of all the affections that fills an I, hallows the scene of her anticipations -the Eden of her delight. But in Mormonism-material, heartless, loathsome, sneeling at sentiment-she finds no promises, no hope of realization for the heaven-sanctioned cravings and as pirations of her nature. Instead of a companion and friend in her husband. to constitute, with herself alone, the regal pair, with oneness of aim, of in terest and of affection. Mormonism presents to her a lord, a master, a tyrant. the beggarly tith of man, whose affec tions are divided, withered, cursed. In Idrmenism there is much that is repul-Ave and even loathsome to woman's ardent and confiding heart. The home that it promises is a divided home, a

And to some, it may seem strange that the young and hopeful, who have witnessed its many evils, do not wholly revolt from it, and abandon it. Yet there are various causes operating powerfully to bind them to the system. And among the causes, it may be remarked that the social ostracism, which it exercises is so severe, vulgar, and even savage, that the fear it awakens in sensitive young minds, keeps many in a position of nominal connexion with the Mormon church. though in their profoundest convictions they dissent from its teachings, and revolt from its sanctioned practices, as from deep and damnable pollution. Let any of the young ladies connected with Mormon families mingle with the so-called Gentiles in their social gatherings and teumons, and some coarse minded, dead-hearted Bishop will, from the public desk, assail their reputation, denounc-ing them in language too vile to be uttered. To face the storm of opposition and investive that efen a show of leaning to-wards the "detested Gentiles," would be sure to raise, requires almost a martyr's courage. Nothing is too sacred to escape the vile insinuations and malignant aspersions of the unscrupnlous advocates of a system founded in deception, and too often sought to be sustained by a species of terrorism.

There are a few young ladies who have come out, and now associate with the Gentiles, and in doing so, in face of the known bitter opposition, they have evinced a most commendable degree of moral courage. But for our respect, for the shrinking from publicity, on the part of pare-minded women, we might mention the names of a few, of whom we have been credibly informed, who are now numbered among the highly respected and esteemed young ladies who attend the Gentile reunions; but who, when they first came out, were most cruelly assailed from the public desk by one of the Mormon Bishops, who is notorious even in Utah for his anchaste and ungentlemanly language. We are the meekest of men, veritable pesce-makers; but had the same discourteous allusions been made to a wife, a sister, or a lady friend of ours, even if the offending individual occupied the highest place in the church, we would at least, endeavor to subject him to a reasonable amount of balaamic discipline, in the hope of eliciting a new revelation, and we have no doubt that, as delusion is not strong enough to retain of old, it would have a desirable effect .-There are auimals that cannot be made to comprehend any other argument .-Outraging every sentiment of manhood, they should be chastised into decency, and taught never more to touch with polluted hands the stainless robe of rep-ald." Plane, Ills, Dec. 15th, (the veritable his own spar Joseph Smith Jr.,) we an article with the above caption. To show that the redoubtable son of the revelationist and Prophet, Joe Smith, repudiates this Utah-Mormon appendage the popular reader. It is addressed to the Brigham yoked Saints in Utab:

"Behold I say unto you, the redemp tion of Zinniods needs come by power; to come to him! I sappose that be therefore I will raise up unto my people would give him the place that he he would give him the place that he he him the saints that staid behind in ses led the children of Isreal, for ye are the children of Israel, and of the seed of Abraham; and ye must needs be led out of bondego by power, and with a stretch ed out are sand as your fathers were led at the first, even so shall the redemption of Zion be." B. of C. 100: 8

The term of Zion bere cannot allu le to the land of Zien, but to a people; a people that used to be called Zion, and who should be pure and tree, but who are now in bondage and need redemption.

You ask what is their bondage here in litab? We learn from the above par agraph that the bondage in question consists chiefly in your banishment from the land of Zion, (Mo.) and the great tributlation which you were to suffer in consequence, and your redemption will be your conversion unto righteousness, with your restoration to the land of

You must first be redeemed with right cousness, because you were cast out of the land of Zion because of your un righteoniness. The Lord must first feel after you. in as much as to send you a blessing, a message of righteonsness, to convert you and convince you of all your unrighteous deeds which you have practiced before Him, so that you may be healed by the milk of the word, and the oil of gladness, and be converted unto the practice of righteonsness.

You ask, what are our temptations and tribulations bere? We answer, something similar to those of the fathers in the land of Egypt; they were tempted ism, as you are here. They had their task masters there to afflict them with their burdens, and to make their lives bitter with hard bondage; such are your temptations and tribulations here; you are tempted to idolatry human sacrifice, polygamy, divorcecraft, and all manner of unrighteousness. You also suffer great tribulations. You have your taskmasters, apostles, bi-bops and presidents, to keep you oppressed as they were kept. They uffliet you with burdens. and make your live bitter with hard bondage. A little while ago your First President, (Brigham Young.) said that he would take care that you should nev er get rich; be said "there will be too much work to build up the kirgdom. You suffered great tribulations before you arrived here, but much more since, and you will suffer a bundred fold more yet before you leave here if you do not repeat and receive the blessing. We have seen men bere starving to death would have starved to death last wieter, if it had not have been for the mercy of Gen. Connor in giving the poor starving Mormons their daily rations out of the Government stores in Camp Douglas. And at the same time there were thou of Brigham Young, and you know it.

Such are your temptations and tribulations here, and you make your bands strong in them by the ouths and covenants which you unrighteously succar to inthat endorement house, to that man of sin, who opposes the truth, and pretends to sit on the throne of God in the temple of God. exalting himself above all that is called God He is the one that is now tempting you, as Paul says: "For this cause God shail send them strong delusion. that they should believe a lie; that they all might be damned who believe not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." 2 These. 2: 11, 13. He (Brigham) teaches you to practice this wick edness before the Lord. He allures you by the last of the flesh to east your lot within the folds of the great cable of his church. He lies to you when he preaches that idolatry is the worship of the true and I ving God; that common divorcecraft is virtue; that polygamy is the celes tial law; that oppression is charity, and that murder is salvation to the soul. It is with strong delusion that he tries to deceive you and tells you that if you receive certain sealings and endowments from him, you will come forth in the first resurrection, and pass by the angels and the Gods to your exaltation and glory in all things; even if you commit all manner of sine and blasphemics against God in the remaining part of your lives, your salvation is sure. It is with strong delusion that he persuades you that the Devil's plan of salvation is the right plan, he deprives you of your agency in all things without asking any questions, or the whys or wherefore. It is with strong delusion that you are told that if you will kill so many Genti es and apostates that you shall be called suriors

o mount Zion, having the name of God engraven upon your forehead.
Such are the strong delusions by which many of you here have been enticed to believe a lie, and have pleasure in whoredom. idelatry, murder, robbery anl all kinds of unrighteousness, and have made your bontag. to strong that you can not know when good come h. that you can not receive the love of the truth that you might be saved, but to have pleasure in unrighteousness that you might be damned It is true that many of you have sold yourselves for nought to that "man of sin," and so become what he terms lawful captives, so that you can be righteonsly slain if you happen to break your covenant with death, as he lately said that many of your brethren hat been slain for that cause, but we are aware that death is the penalty without his acknowledging it. The great question among us in there vallies is, who is this man who is to be like unto Moses to deliver the Lord's people? Brigham Young boldly claims to be that man, and that he is to dictate who shall, and who shall not return to the land of Zion, but for fear that his the people in bondage a little while longer. h' sometimes sootle your ears by telling you that David is to be the man, and that when be comes to take his place, that he will come to Brother

Brigham to receive his authority, and that nobody will be more willing to re-ceive him than blinees. This will do for a season, but it is like the temple-a oment that they would ever have one. I will ask you, will be received must again answer NO; for he says that the twelve apostles of this dispensation of polygamy, we quote a portion for istand tartheir lown place, and always will, and Heber says that no man can unhorse bim, and Duniel II. Wells can say the same. In what capacity then would be receive David Smith, if he was the eastern countries, that is to be his little slaves, to comb his horses, mop his floors, clean his boots, and do all his drudgery, and finally save them by what he calls baptism, which is to cut their through and shove them under the water. Pretty bitter pil's of truth, these, for Brigham Young to have to swallow from his own people, the true Mormons, followers and son of Joe Smith binnsell! The above was written by an anti-polygamic Saint and proacher, near Prove in this Territory.

honsand. Its offire will soon begin to attract more attention than they have for some-time past. In Utah is the great social plague Polygamy, a moral or rather im-moral Upas whose deadly leaves fill the surrounding, atmosphere with every imaginable, every namable and nameless poison which vitiates and destroys the moral and physical system. There is in Salt Lake City a free press, a daily newspaper called the Daily Union Vedetie, which we receive and frequently peruse with much interest. It has not the fear of Brigham Young or his "Danie Band" or his "Flying Aven-ger's, before the eyes. From the 1.st issue of this paper, that of November 7th, we give a significant extract.

The Mountain Meadows massacre exhibited in thrilling characters the spirit and principles of the wretches who now in Utah defy the laws of the United States.

The reference to "Mountain Meadows" calls up one of the most cold blooded and atrocious massacres ever perpetrated either in civilized or savage life. It was the indiscriminate slanghter of about one hundred men, women, and children, at the place mentioned in Utah Territory, in the fall of 1857, at the dead hour or night, by the emissaries of those who now openly defy the laws of the United States

Whether all proofs of the erime have disappeared with the time that has elapsed since it was committed, we know not, but if it be possible the red handed villains, yet surviving, who were responsi-ble for that cowardly and infamous deed of darkness and of blood ought even yet to be ferreted ont and brought to justice. The bones of the murdered victims which for years whitened the grounds at Mountains Meadows plead in their silen awfulness and eloquedce for justice.

sands of tons of wheat and flour laid u: "GAY GAMBOLIER."-"A and B. are in store in this city, under the control playing a game of seven up or all-fours. A has but one to go, while B has three, B begs, and A gives him one. B then plays out the Jack of trumps, on which A plays the seven of trumps. On the conclusion of the game the Jack proves to be high and the seven spot low. B contends having saved his Jack he is entitled to score him to his game as soon as he is saved, and at the conclusion of the game the Jack, proving to be high, he claims to have won the game. On the other hand. A claims that the low must come in before Jack, and that he wins. Which is right, and who wins the game?" To which query the following unswer has been furnished: "A is correct and wins the game. By saving his Jack. B can count "high," but as be licks still another point of game and cannot count his Jack until after A has counted his "low," B cannot win.

WINTER AT Sr. L :UIS .- The St. Louis

Democrat, of the 18th ult, says: A very sudden spell of extreme cold weather has sealed up our rivers and cut off the trade of the city. So unexpected was the visitation, that old boatmen, intimately acquainted with the usual changes of this variable climate and the frigid freaks it plays with the Father of Waters and his smaller progency, were taken in, and some of them thoroughly done for. Many boats were permitted to remain at the levee, in the most exposed positions offered by that very exposed barbor, under the expectation that navigation was still to be p. olenged - possibly for the balance of the year-and the consequence is a smash up of several valuable steamers On Saturday aftermon the ice which had been fixed for twenty four hours perceptibly to the eye-but with terrif fic effect on the iron and wooden structures locked in its embrace. There is no resistance equal to such a power, and the movement of the immense icefields was marked by the snapping of cables and the crushing of decks and timbers.

GENERAL SANTA ANNA -A COFFE Spon, dent of the New York Journal of Commerce, writing on board of the United States steamer Powbattan, St. Thomas West Indies, November 1º, 1865, says of the Ex-President of Mexico:

"Last night we went to a grand ball at Gen. Santa Anna's. He is a very fine-looking old min of seventy years, and talks very much like Daniel Web ster. On leaving his house he gave us all a present, as a memento of our visit."

THEY had a Paper Wedding" in Springfield. Ohio, recently, after the fashion of the tin, silver and gold ones now so common. Con-i-leting the price for the article, the expense of suitable presents in paper must have been nearly equal to silver value.
